

Exciting new future as we join Riverdale

We are delighted to announce that Devonshire House is now part of the Riverdale Healthcare Group as we join them as their latest acquisition. As the group starts to expand in The South, we are excited to become Riverdale's first practice in this area. This amazing opportunity will allow us to continue to develop and realise new projects so we remain at the forefront of dentistry for you and your patients.

We would like to reassure you that all aspects of Devonshire House will remain the same at both of our sites and our dental laboratory, and we will still operate under the name of Devonshire House.

We will continue to support you as comprehensively as before, with the aim of enhancing expertise for everyone, and we are looking forward to welcoming you back to Devonshire House when the pandemic allows. Your patients will continue to receive the high standard of individual care from our fantastic team and their routine treatment with all of our clinicians will remain the same.

We look forward to working with you in the future as we embark on our exciting new chapter.

Kind regards
Julian, Ian, Wail and Cyrus
