

Greetings!

Our new Specialist Prosthodontist Balraj Sidhu welcomes your referrals

It is with great pleasure that we welcome Specialist Prosthodontist Balraj Sidhu to Devonshire House. Bal joins our team at Queen Edith's Way offering both general and specialist dentistry and brings with her a wealth of experience.

If you don't have a specific Prosthodontist in mind, we recommend referring to Bal who will be able to accommodate your patients with a minimum waiting time. .

Our protocols remain unchanged

As most pandemic restrictions have now been lifted in England, we thought it was a good time to get in touch to let you know about our latest protocols and news at Devonshire House.

We have contacted patients to reassure them that our procedures to keep them safe at Devonshire House remain unchanged and that our dedicated team continue to implement COVID prevention protocols.

We continue to:

- ask patients to wear a face mask at the practice (unless exempt)
- take patients' temperature on arrival
- ask patients to wait in their car or outside on arrival

We appreciate that at present there is a longer wait than usual for appointments, especially for hygiene appointments. We ask you to kindly bear with us when referring patients during this period of high demand.
