

Facial Aesthetic treatments now available at Devonshire House

We are excited to share with you the launch of our new range of facial aesthetic treatments, extending our cosmetic treatments to encompass your skin as well as your smile.

From next week, our Specialist Prosthodontist Dr Assad Khan will be offering a range of facial aesthetic skin rejuvenating treatments at our main practice on Queen Edith's Way, with no obligation consultations available on selected Fridays and Saturdays.

Further details on the range of treatments available can be found on our website.

No obligation consultation with Dr Assad Khan

At your initial consultation:

You will have the opportunity to discuss with Assad your desired outcome and ask any relevant questions you may have.

We will advise you of recommended treatment options available.

Consultations cost £40 and there is no obligation to proceed with any treatment. This charge will be deducted from any treatment costs if you were to go ahead.

As a Specialist Prosthodontist, Assad's understanding of facial anatomy naturally positions him as an ideal facial aesthetics clinician.

You can book an initial consultation with Assad by visiting our website or calling our reception team on 01223 245266.
